Program Evaluation – Why?

Evaluation is important to several groups...

- Grantees
- Funding Source
- Future Projects
- Public Dollars

Required Progress Reports: How-When-Where

- Send to your Project Coordinator
- Send by the 20th of each month
- Include narrative and data
- Feel free to call ahead with questions and concerns

Required Reports: Monthly Progress Reports

- Narrative Anecdotal information (Include the unusual and fun things too!)
- Process Data
  - How Many
  - Who
  - What
- Outcome Data

Institutional Review Board

Trust Fund Commission

Institutional Review Board – Why?

- Federal requirement
- Projects are considered research
- Ensure the rights of all participants
  - Safety
  - Confidentiality

Institutional Review Board What does the IRB want to know?

- What are the risks?
- What are the anticipated benefits?
- How are participants chosen?
- What measures will be taken to ensure subjects have enough information?
- How will the privacy of the subjects and the confidentiality of their data be protected?

Institutional Review Board The Process

- Identify an IRB
- Prepare and submit the required information
- Make any requested changes and re-submit if required
- Keep the Duke Management Team informed

What does this mean?

- 3 to 6 months review process
- Get organized
- Paperwork
   completed quickly and accurately

Institutional Review Board Options

- Local IRB
- The NC Division of Public Health
- Duke University Medical Center

STRETCH BREAK!!!

(and more introductions)

Program Evaluation: Content

Three components of the evaluation

- 1. Evaluation of the individual projects
- Evaluation of the overall aims identified by the Commission
- 3. Evaluation of the goals and objectives specified by the Commission in the Request for Proposals

Program Evaluation

Things to remember...

- Grantees will receive specific training and assistance to collect and report evaluation information
- The online reporting system is crucial to the evaluation
- It is a valuable tool for grantees, for the Commission and for legislators to assess progress and achievements

Next Steps

- Prepare your Action Plan
- Begin working on IRB materials
- Submit Expense and Monthly Progress Reports – 2/20/04
- Site Visits
- Communicate with us if you run into problems

Nothing is impossible for the person who doesn't have to do it himself

We're here to help!
